

WHO WE ARE

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program was established in 1998 to provide multilingual information to Mountain View residents about the wide variety of City services that are available.

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program staff and volunteers are bilingual and provide information in English, Spanish, Russian, and Chinese.

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program works in conjunction with City departments, County agencies, and nonprofit agencies to provide multilingual information, services, and programs.

HOW TO CONTACT US

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program is located at City Hall, City Manager's Office, 500 Castro Street, Third Floor, Mountain View, California, 94041; call (650) 903-6145 to leave a message in any of these four languages: English, Spanish, Russian, and Chinese; or e-mail: multilingual.cop@mountainview.gov.

SCHEDULE A PRESENTATION

To schedule a presentation, please call (650) 903-6145 or e-mail: community.cop@mountainview.gov. The Multilingual Community Outreach Program staff and volunteers make presentations to work, school, social, and faith groups.

VISIT OUR BOOTH

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program is present at downtown and other community events, distributing information. Please stop by and visit our booth.

WORKING TOGETHER

The Multilingual Community Outreach Program works closely with:

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Assists Police Officers in facilitating multilingual presentations for Neighborhood Watch and other Police programs.

OFFICE OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

Partners with the Office of Emergency Services and Mountain View Firefighters to empower English and non-English speakers of the community to train and respond in the event of a disaster.

MEDIATION PROGRAM

Collaborates with the Mediation Program to assist in resolving disputes to the satisfaction of all parties.

CHILD AND YOUTH SERVICES

Works with City departments that provide programs and facilities for children, youth, and caregivers to build community awareness of these services.

COUNTY PROGRAMS AND NONPROFIT AGENCIES

Provides information on available subsidized housing; services for children and families; and resident referrals to emergency assistance agencies.
